FINGERS ARE FUN

Children don't need grown-ups to tell them certain things. The title of this song, "Fingers are Fun," is no news to them!

One of the first parts of their own body an infant gets to know is their fingers - they fit perfectly in the mouth! [Soon after, they discover their toes - hmm, they fit in the mouth, too!] This delightful song reinforces and challenges developing fine motor skills, and as always, is just such fun!

FINGERS ARE FUN

Fingers are fun. My fingers are fun.
I have nails on the end of every one.
I can wave them. I can point them.
I can bend them. I can join them together.
Yes - my fingers are fun!

I've got five on one hand, five on the other.
That makes ten fingers in all.
Whatever would I do, if they stuck like glue?
They'd be very hard to use.

Fingers are fun. My fingers are fun.
I have nails on the end of every one.
I can walk them. I can talk them.
I can slide them.
I can circle them around.
Yes - my fingers are fun!

I've got five on one hand,
Five on the other.
That makes ten fingers in all.
Sometimes they get icky,
And very sticky. (Ewww!)
I will wash, and rinse them off.

Fingers are fun. My fingers are fun.
Yes - my fingers are fun.
Oh, yes - my fingers are fun!
