MARY WORE HER RED DRESS

This week's featured song is a traditional, American folk song. Like most folk songs, it's been sung in many ways over the centuries.

"Mary Wore Her Red Dress," in one of its earlier versions reveals a surprise at the ending - Mary is actually a red bird! At Sing a Song we love to use this repetitive song to recognize our students individually, giving them each their own verse. Yet, the song has infinite variables. We can even make it about food!

MARY WORE HER RED DRESS

Mary wore her red dress,
Red dress, red dress.
Mary wore her red dress,
All day long

Mary wore her red hat... etc.
Mary wore her red shoes... etc.
Mary wore her red gloves... etc.
Mary was a red bird... etc.

Or...
Ethan wore his blue sneakers
Blue sneakers, blue sneakers...

Or...
Harper wore her Elsa shirt,
Elsa shirt, Elsa shirt...

Or...
Avi likes to eat pizza,
Eat pizza, eat pizza...

Or..
Whatever!!

All Sing A Song songs and activities develop various areas of age-appropriate skills, including language development, gross motor skills, fine motor skills, creative thinking, listening skills, social interaction skills, self-expression, imaginary play, autonomy and self-esteem.
